

Cancellation & Refund Policy

- The organisers reserve the absolute right to postpone, amend, or cancel the residency at their discretion due to insufficient participation, operational reasons, unforeseen circumstances, force major events, or any situation that may affect the successful execution of the program.
- Should the residency be cancelled prior to its commencement, all payments received — including application fees — shall be refunded in full to the applicants.
- However, the organisers will not be liable for indirect losses or personal expenditures incurred by applicants or participants, including but not limited to travel, visa, insurance, or independent bookings.
